

PULMONARIA

OPAL

Pulmonaria officinalis Opal ('Ocupol')

Forms neat, symmetrical rounded mounds with clusters of small, glowing flowers, which open as pale opalescent blue, then mature to paler hues. From UK plant breeder Bob Brown.

Uses & Attributes Front border, ground cover, rock garden, container. Long-blooming, deer-resistant.

VARIETY FEATURES

Approx. Height 12-14"/30-36cm

Approx. Spread 28"/71cm

USDA Hardiness Zones 5-8

Blooming Time Spring

Habit Mounded

Light Part Shade, Shade

Available in

MUST HAVE
Perennials™

MUSTHAVEPERENNIALS.COM
info@musthaveperennials.com