

'MOUNT NEBO'

New foliage emerges bright red in the fall and early spring maturing to pink, white and green speckled leaves. Bouquets of flowers emerge in early Spring along with a new flush of foliage. Rosey pink blushed buds and flowers persist. For weeks slowly fading to chartreuse. Bright yellow reflexive anthers add to the unique flowers. Uniquely colored and patterned foliage adds extended interest to shade gardens into the summer.

VARIETY FEATURES

Height: 8-10 in. (20-25cm)
Spread: 12-14 in. (30-35cm)
Exposure: part shade to shade
Deer and rabbit resistant
USDA Hardiness Zones 6-9

MUST HAVE Perennials™

MUSTHAVEPERENNIALS.COM
info@musthaveperennials.com